INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Township Ordinance requires that all cats 7 months or older be licensed.

Exceptions

- a) Newly required cats must be licensed within ten (10) days of acquisition
- b) Cats must be licensed within ten (10) days of reaching licensing age.
- c) Cats currently licensed in another state must be re-licensed within ninety (90) days.

2. All cats licenses expire on December 31st of each year.

3. License must be issued in the name of an adult member of the household.

4. Check rabies information and spay/neuter status. If there have been any changes since last registration, be sure to enclose copies of veterinarian certificates.

5. Rabies certificate must be valid until October 31st of the licensing year.

6. SUMMONSES MAY BE ISSUES FOR UNLICENSED CATS.
