

Mission

The Montgomery/Rocky Hill Municipal Alliance and Youth Services Commission (MAC-YSC) is two distinct functions serviced by one group of volunteers. The YAC-YSC brings together representatives from local governmental bodies, the educational system, the health care community, law enforcement, business, labor, religious leaders, civic associations, social entities, and the community at large. The MAC-YSC coalition plans and coordinates community programs and activities that help prevent substance abuse and promotes the health and welfare of children and adults.

About Montgomery/Rocky Hill Municipal Alliance
